

HERITAGE PILLAR – HISTORY OF UKRAINIANS IN CANADA

General Granting Criteria for Organizations

PREAMBLE

The Shevchenko Foundation is a national, chartered philanthropic institution dedicated to the preservation, promotion and development of Ukrainian Canadian cultural heritage, and to the advancement of a flourishing Ukrainian community for the enrichment of Canada. The Foundation respects the past, celebrates the present and promotes the future of the Ukrainian community in Canada with inclusiveness, integrity, sustainability, spirit, excellence, creativity and innovation as its core values.

COMMUNITY STEWARDSHIP

The Shevchenko Foundation fulfills its mandate by disbursing grants in support of various initiatives that assist groups and individuals in the four pillars of Arts, Education, Community Development, and Heritage.

The Shevchenko Foundation's grant-giving stewardship extends priority to projects and programs that:

- Contribute to enriching the Canadian experience with the beauty, passion, and diversity of Ukrainian Canadian culture;
- Contribute to strengthening the Ukrainian community in Canada;
- Share Ukrainian Canadian cultural contributions with a broad and diverse public on a community, regional or national level;
- Exhibit financial capability to undertake and sustain the project and/or program within the boundaries of a business plan, either as an organization or an individual;
- Employ new technologies and partnership models on how Ukrainian Canadian cultural heritage is created, produced, disseminated, and preserved.

ASSESSMENT

The Shevchenko Foundation's assessment for grant-giving is guided by integrity, sustainability, excellence, innovation, and inclusiveness of all Canadians who support the mandate of the Shevchenko Foundation.

When assessing applications, the Foundation uses the following questions.

- Are the goals for the project well-articulated?
- Are the skills of those undertaking the project to completion well-articulated?
- Are the goals for the project within the scope and mission of the Shevchenko Foundation?
- How does the project advance the relevancy of Ukrainian cultural heritage to the enrichment of Canada?
- How well does the project demonstrate an understanding of present-day industry standards of excellence and public engagement in corresponding to the appropriate pillar of Arts, Heritage, Community Development, or Education?
- What is the value-added contribution of this project that distinguishes it beyond existing Ukrainian cultural heritage content and similar activities?
- Is there a sound marketing and distribution plan that articulates accommodating changing demographics, changing patterns of consumption, changing forms of dissemination?
- Are the indicators for success of the project within the organizational and human resources capacity of the applicant?
- How convincing is the financial viability of the project?
 - What are the consequences and contingencies for project shortfalls? How will the project still be viable if it does not receive the projected revenues in grant support and public support?
 - Is there evidence of sound fiscal management, a track record of fiscal responsibility, and sound budgeting?

Assessment continued on next page

HERITAGE PILLAR – HISTORY OF UKRAINIANS IN CANADA

General Granting Criteria for Organizations

- How realistic are budget revenue projections? Are cost estimates well researched?
- Are ticket sales and fundraising targets within the scope of past performance and similar market realities?
- What is the demonstrated value of funding a project application if it does not generate earned revenue from ticket sales or other earned revenue streams?

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- Grant applications must be made in advance of the starting date of the project.
- Submission of an application is not a guarantee that the Shevchenko Foundation will provide financial grant assistance.
- The Shevchenko Foundation funds up to 50% of total project or program costs of successful applications contingent upon budget resources for the given grant deadline.
- The Shevchenko Foundation strives to create a balance between supporting established returning applicants, new applicants, and applicants exploring emerging practices in the broad scope of cultural development.
- The Shevchenko Foundation does not claim any copyright on projects receiving funding, unless an express agreement is otherwise reached.
- Grants can be used to cover costs and expenses associated with the project, but cannot be used to cover expenses for general living allowances for project participants.
- Please check the Shevchenko Foundation website for any posted changes to eligibility and/or assessment criteria.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

Organizations:

- Canadian not-for-profit community organizations, artist collectives, Canadian registered private businesses whose activities occur primarily in Canada, and Canadian chartered educational institutions.
